In Memory of Father Torracco

Assumption College mourns the loss of beloved professor

Kristin Geyer: Editor-in-chief, Le Provocateur

The sudden loss of Associate Professor of Theology Father Stephen Torracco stunned the Assumption Community last week. On Wednesday, September 23, Fr. Torracco collapsed in his Westborough, Mass. home; paramedics were unable to resuscitate him. His funeral was held yesterday, September 28. Fr. Torracco was 56 years old.

His death came as a surprise the following morning to many students and faculty who greatly respected the priest and professor.

"Honestly, the news took my breath away," said senior Laura Brannon, who is currently enrolled in Moral Theology. "I had just seen him on Tuesday and he looked perfectly health, and then to hear of this it was so shocking." Dr. Francesco Cesareo, president of the College, shared a similar reaction. "Everyone is shocked by this sudden loss and the gap that his death leaves in the Theology Department and the College as a whole," he said. The startling loss extends beyond the Community, as Fr. Torracco leaves behind his mother, Clorinda, for whom he was the caretaker, two brothers, Daniel and Ronald, and three nieces.

Born in Cambridge, Mass. Fr. Torracco lived much of his life in the Boston area. At 14 years old, he set his sights on becoming a missionary. "He had gone to Brazil with the intentions of becoming a missionary priest," Dr. Mark LePain, a colleague of Fr. Torracco for 22 years, explained. "He contracted Malaria such that if he had continued to live there it would have greatly affected his health."

Torracco returned to the States to continue his seminarian studies at St. Francis de Sales Seminary in Wisconsin. He was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Abaetebuba in 1980, though he would never go to its location deep in the Amazon as a result of his condition. Thus, Fr. Torracco pursued advanced degrees; earning his Master's of Divinity from Harvard University and both His Master's and Doctorate from Boston College.

It was in his time at Boston College that Fr. Ernest Fortin mentored Fr. Torracco. "He had a very great esteem for what he learned from Fr. Fortin," said LePain. "The debt he owed to Fr. Ernest marked not only his teaching, but his understanding of things." Assumption's own Fortin and Gonthier Foundations of Western Civilization Program is named in part after Fr. Torracco's much-admired mentor. Fr. Torracco was equally passionate about his service to the Sisters of Mercy. "For the last 15 years he has celebrated the Eucharist every day, seven days a week," said Sr. Ellen Guerin, former Dean of Studies and lecturer in Theology. "He was punctual and he always gave a short homily that was well prepared." Sr. Ellen noted that often other sisters would ask Fr. Torracco for copies of the homily so they could reflect on it throughout their days. She regarded his patience and dedication to the elderly sisters as "extraordinarily compassionate." In the past few months, though, Fr. Torracco was less available to the Sisters, but cited his mother's illness for his absences. "In hindsight you wonder if he wasn't feeling well either," Sr. Ellen reflected. Fr. Torracco's schedule was filled with not only teaching, but various commitments within the greater community as well. In the mid 1990's, Fr. Torracco served as Editor of Catholic International Magazine. "I always marveled at how he could be a magazine editor and writer as well as a teacher," said LePain. Fr. Torracco's flare for multitasking didn't end there. Other responsibilities included Fr. Torracco serving as Executive Director of the Society for the Study of the Magisterial Teaching of the Church and a faculty member of the Catholic Distance University and the Board of Catholic Experts of Eternal Word Television Network.

An avid Red Sox fan, Fr. Torracco was committed to watching the games in his little spare time. In addition, Fr. Torracco was a lover of nature and break making. "He was always trying something new," said Sr. Guerin, noting that he would often come into the Theology Department with a new treat for his colleagues to try. Contributing to the positive attitude of the department, Fr. Torracco was known for his humor and storytelling.

"He had an infectious laugh - it's deep and sounds a little mischievous," said Donna Hughes, administrative secretary for Theology and Philosophy.

Dr. LePain also remembers Fr. Torracco's sense of humor fondly. "He would come in and spin these funny, funny stories," he said. LePain credits this knack for storytelling as part of what made Fr. Torracco such an effective teacher.

Fr. Torracco came to Assumption in 1988, serving as the department chair from 2004-2008. Fr. Torracco made an indelible impression on many of the students he taught in his 22-year tenure.

"He helped his students understand that the goal of theology is to come know God," said President Cesareo. He continued, "He had a gift of taking students from being disinterested in what the Church teaches to arriving at an understanding of the Church's teaching that they came to affirm and personally appropriate. Even non-Catholic students who took his courses came to understand better why the Church teaches what it does."

From her first class him, Brannon was surprised to find it was not as she anticipated. "I expected him to not necessarily force his beliefs on you, but try to strongly persuade students to lead a very religious life. But I was totally wrong."

Dr. Lepain explained that "Fr. Torracco had an ability to present complex things with a great deal of clarity-he was very imaginative in his ways."

One way was Fr. Torracco's use of Gerard Goggins' novel Half-Wits to frame his Moral Theology course and the other texts around it. As indicated on the front cover, the book examines "where do you turn to when all is lost and you believe God has abandoned you?" Goggins, an Assumption alum, was inspired to write the novel after an experience at Worcester's historic restaurant, The Boynton. Through utilization of the text partnered with others, students found a modern way to relate to timeless teachings. Fr. Torracco often has Goggins visit the class at the culmination of the course.

On the legacy.com guestbook in Fr. Torracco's honor, Goggins wrote, "Fr. Torracco was an inspiring teacher and a great friend-a good and faithful servant, and a blessing in my life."

In his death, family, friends and colleagues fondly remember their own experiences with Fr. Torracco. As Assumption mourns, the Community comes together to reflect on the impact he left.

Dr. LePain stressed the importance of Fr. Torracco's legacy.

"I think if we look to say what have we lost," he suggested, "we perhaps better look at what we can remember."

Seniors' First Night Out at Jillian's

The class of 2011 kicked off their senior year with a First Night Out celebration at Jillian's. Students spent the night catching up with friends while shooting rounds of pool, sharing a drink, and hitting the dance floor. Everyone was in agreement that the night of fun was the perfect way to begin their final year at Assumption.

100 Days at Maxwell Silverman's

On February 4, the Class of 2011 partied at Maxwell Silverman's to celebrate 100 days left until graduation. They wandered through the Plourde and boarded big yellow school buses for a night of dancing, eating and bonding. It was the perfect way to kick off their final months at Assumption.

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE

Dear Graduates:

Four years ago, we began our journey at Assumption College together. I arrived as the new president in July 2007 and you arrived as freshmen the following month. As such we were learning together. Not only were we familiarizing ourselves with the campus, but we were also beginning to understand why we had both chosen to come to Assumption College. We were discovering what was special about the College, in particular the values that lay at the foundation of this institution. Those values are firmly rooted in the Catholic intellectual tradition and enriched by the charism of the Augustinians of the Assumption. You will recall that I introduced you to those values on your first day of class, when the College officially welcomed you as students when it inaugurated the matriculation ceremony as a new tradition. You may also remember how hot it was in the Laska gym during that ceremony!

In the course of the last four years you have been transformed into a new person. Through your courses in the liberal arts and in your major, you have been introduced to new ideas and new ways of looking at the world. The faculty have passed on to you the basic knowledge found in each discipline you have studied, along with a sense of the inter-relation among all branches of learning. You have come to a deeper appreciation of the dialogue between faith and reason in the quest for truth. Through the education of your mind, you have come, hopefully, to an awareness that learning is a sacred process because in the act of acquiring knowledge God reveals Himself.

However, your education has gone beyond intellectual formation. It has also sought the formation of your heart and soul. Through the education of the heart you have come to possess a compassionate commitment to the service of others, realizing that you have the responsibility to take the knowledge that you have acquired and apply it for the betterment of the world into which we now send you. Through the education of the soul you have come to appreciate that the spiritual and religious side of the human person is an essential part of each individual. Hopefully God has touched your soul during your four years here and you have come to understand that the words of the College's motto, "...until Christ be formed in you" are not empty words, but the inspiring vision of your education, and indeed your life.

Describing one of the aims of education, Fr. Emmanuel d'Alzon wrote, "We will find ourselves urging our young people towards God, delivering them from what is false, raising them to the level of truth, transforming them into vessels of truth, convincing them that nothing but truth is real or good." You are those vessels of truth. The world is in desperate need of individuals like you who are willing to embrace the truth, even when doing so may require you to stand in opposition to the secularism and moral relativism that dominate our world today. Do not be afraid to be people of conviction and belief. Do not be afraid to speak genuine truth and to live your lives in a way that is consistent with the values you have gained at Assumption College. Above all, faithfully live out the vocation to which you have been called by God and which you have discovered during your time here.

You will always hold a special place in my heart because we began this journey together. You are "my class" of whom I am proud because of who you are and what you have accomplished. Congratulations and God bless you.

Campus Activities Board

The Campus Activities Board is responsible for organizing many of the social events on campus. As one of the largest event planning organizations, they make sure that all students are having fun together. CAB members work hard to organize events that everyone will enjoy throughout the year. CAB can be thanked for many well-loved events, like the big spring concert, bingo games and comedian performances.

Campus Ministry

Campus Ministry is a group of dedicated students and staff, whose goal is to bring meaning to the motto of Assumption College: "Until Christ Be Formed In You." Through liturgy, prayer, retreats, mission experiences and other programs, Campus Ministry helps to strengthen student faith and build stronger relationships with God. Members of this group work tirelessly to help others to find truth, peace, justice and love.

Reach Out Center

The Reach Out Center offers opportunities for Assumption College students to become more involved in the community and to help out with local programs. The goal of this organization is to continue to build on students' education through meaningful service, while offering new perspectives on the world. The Reach Out Center encourages students to become involved leaders, while building a sense of community and responsibility to others.

Residence Assistant Staff

The Residence Assistance Staff is a resource that provides personal support to all Assumption College residents. Through teamwork, the R. A.s work to create a safe, respectful, and friendly environment, while providing programs for their halls to connect the area with academic and social life. Working with the R.A. Staff is a fun experience, which teaches valuable skills for life after college, like leadership and teamwork.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is responsible for representing all full-time undergraduate students at Assumption College. The SGA consists of executive staff, senators, and class officers, with five executive and senator positions for each class year. These students are the “voice” of their classmates to make positive changes for the campus. Focusing not only on the academic aspects of the campus, they also help to plan events, including class trips and fundraisers.

Academic Support Center

The Academic Support Center is Assumption College's tutoring center, which offers Peer-to-Peer assistance in all academic disciplines. All centers and tutors are nationally certified by the College Reading and Language Association. The Academic Support Center also offers programs to help students in their classes. Programs are also offered to promote important skills, like time management, organization and note-taking, all of which are essential for success in all classes.

Orientation 2010

"Passport to Your Future"

Nearly all students at Assumption College experience First-Year Orientation, a program that allows incoming freshmen to spend a night on campus and learn about what the college has to offer, including academics, spirituality, extra-curricular clubs and activities, and much more. This year, the Orientation Program was run with a new theme: "Passport to Your Future," in an attempt to excite incoming freshmen for the new chapter in their lives that they were about to begin. The Program was run out of the Office of Student Activities by Orientation Leaders, students who experienced a thorough interview process beginning in the second semester of the 2009-2010 academic year. Twenty of these student leaders guided more than 600 students over three sessions of Orientation, allowing them to get them acclimated to the college campus, to meet new friends, and to enhance the excitement of their college move-in the upcoming Fall. Additionally, through extensive training and diligent teamwork, Orientation Leaders experienced much personal growth, making new friends and creating life-long memories out of experiences which they never thought they would have.

Matriculation Ceremony

Assumption College held its annual Matriculation Ceremony for the incoming students of 2014 on September 2nd, 2010. Many colleges and universities celebrate the entrance of a new class with a Matriculation Ceremony that not only welcomes the class officially, but introduces them to the values of the institution and the importance of the academic journey upon which they have embarked. This ritual is often a defining moment of transition for new students as they begin their college career, as well as an opportunity for the faculty to not welcome these new student, and to show their support and readiness to assist them along the way. After the ceremony, all students were invited to attend a campus barbecue.

AC Idol

Hundreds came out for the 6th AC Idol to cheer on nine Assumption College students competing for Assumption College's own Idol. The nine competitors ranged from Freshman to Seniors: Katerina Reilly, Matt Angelini, Joe Curnane, Gina Tremblay, Taylor Nunez, Susan Melnick, Christine Roach, Kerriann Lessard and, rounding out the competitors, Ben Krol who took home the 2010 title of AC Idol.

Fall Fever

Fall Fever is an outdoor carnival which is organized by Campus Activities Board. It is held every Fall semester and offers many fun activities and all students are invited to attend. Last year's event included a wrecking ball, photos and food!

St. Patty's Day

The color green was present on March 17, 2011 on campus as everyone became Irish for the day to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Students dressed in style for the popular celebration and visited the various Irish pubs throughout Worcester. As St. Patrick's Day fell on a Thursday, Leitrim's Pub was the hot spot for Assumption Students this year, as well as Mahoney's Pub.

-Jessica Costa, Student Life Editor

Family Weekend

Family Weekend was held from September 22nd to the 24th. The theme of the weekend was "First Annual Fall Festival." The weekend was coordinated by Leslie Carriveau '12, Doug Sauter '13 and Briana Brown. The weekend started off on Friday night with BINGO and an Assumption Talent show with various performers. The next day, families and students enjoyed Taylor brunch before heading to the Harvest Fair and football game vs, Saint Anselm. After the day time activities came to a end, families watched musical performer Baby Wants Candy. The weekend gave students and families time to bond together at Assumption's campus.

Light the Night

On October 24, 2010 over 650 people came together for the 11th annual Light the Night Walk, the largest and most successful fundraiser in Massachusetts for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. The event helped raise over $100,000 for those who are still fighting the diseases.

Halloween 2010

Halloween weekend at Assumption never fails to bring on the fun. This year seniors, decked out in their best costumes, partied both on and off campus. The fun and creative personalities at AC provided the campus with appearances from Mario and Luigi, Bear in the Big Blue House, and even a human Tetris game! There's no doubt that Halloween 2010 was one of Assumption's best.

Winter Ball 2010

600 Students attended the DCU on December 2nd. The night will forever be "Frozen in Time" with the memories that were made that will be kept in the Clock Picture Frame that was given out as a favor. Students danced the night away in celebration of the fall semester coming to an end.

Midnight Madness

Midnight Madness, held on October 14th, was once again a night of excitement for Greyhound, marking fans the start of men's and women's basketball season. The night began with students scurrying into Laska Gym to be greeted with t-shirts and free giveaways. After the National Anthem, sung by Jill Martucci '11, hosts Taylor Nunez '11 and Peter Bouchie '11 introduced the cheerleaders and dance team to pump up the crowd. The night continued with more prizes and games followed by the introduction of the men's and women's basketball team.

Midnight Breakfast

This annual late night meal, served to students by faculty and staff, is everyone's favorite part of first semester finals week. Students line up in the cold hours before the official start to claim their free t-shirt and a seat close to the kitchen. The pancakes, eggs, and tater-tots are the perfect way to take a break from studying and celebrate the end of another semester.

Merry Christmas 2010!

Seniors went out and celebrated the holidays in style this year with some fabulous and creative Christmas sweaters and accessories.

Siblings Weekend

Yet another program organized by CAB, Siblings Weekend is a great opportunity for students to involve their family in campus life. Siblings are invited as guests onto the Assumption College campus and have a chance to participate in various activities. Bingo, movies, and ice cream socials are enjoyed by all, as are entertainers, like magicians. Siblings Weekend is fun for both students and their siblings, as they share an enjoyable experience at Assumption.

Start 1 Retreat

The START 1 Retreat takes place twice a year at Camp Grotonwood in Groton, MA. The retreat provides students with the opportunity to meet new people, reflect on their lives, themselves as individuals and members of the Assumption community, and on their relationship with God. START Retreats were created by Assumption students and each one is led by Assumption students. START 1 is 24-hours and takes place in October and March each year. ALL students, regardless of religious affiliation, are welcome to attend.

- Stephanie McCaffrey, Assistant Director Campus Ministry

Start 2 Retreat

START 2 is a 48-hour retreat that takes place at St. Benedict Abbey in Still River, MA. It provides the opportunity for students who have attended START 1 to continue their faith journey by reflecting on the themes of prayer, discipleship, the problem of suffering, and service. START 2 takes place on a beautiful piece of property north of Worcester and provides students with a wonderful chance to grown in faith.

-Stephanie McCaffrey, Assistant Director of Campus Ministry

SEND: Spring Break Mission Trips

The SEND Service Program offers students the opportunity to put their faith into action, meet new people, travel to another part of the country, and see life from another perspective. During the 2011 winter and spring breaks, 91 students and advisors traveled to eight different service locations across the country: New Orleans, LA, Baltimore, MD, Camden, NJ, Immokalee, FL, Minneapolis, MN, Norristown, PA, Pine Ridge, SD, and Washington, DC. By immersing themselves in the local community, students began to gain awareness of social issues that contribute to poverty and injustice and hold people back from achieving their God-given rights as human beings. Students also received an opportunity to develop relationships with people on campus and build friendships that will last beyond the trips. After participating in the SEND program, many students are inspired to continue service throughout their college career and even after graduation.

-Vincent Sullivan-Jacques, Campus Ministry

Spring Ball

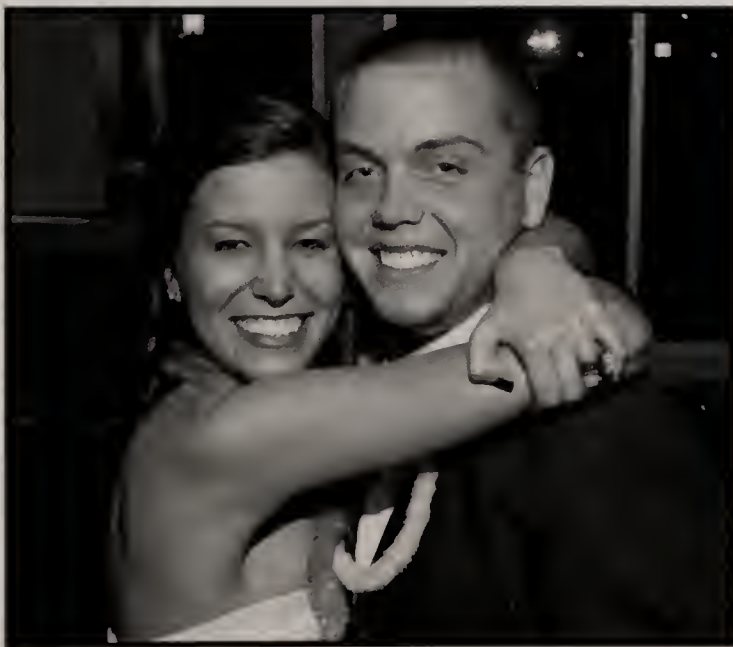

550 students attended the DCU on March 25th. It was an "Evening in Paradise" with a tropical theme. The night welcomed the approaching spring with the celebration of friends and music and the beach towel favors. It was truly a night not to miss.

Spring Ball Candid

Duck Day

Assumption's sixth annual Duck Day was a huge success, with many people arriving to welcome the ducks back to the pond. Over 200 children from the local elementary schools attended, wearing duck caps. They were happy to see Assumption College mascot Pierre the Greyhound, as well as Joey the Duck. The Student Activities Office, which organized the event, also provided duck-themed umbrellas and whistles, as well as cupcakes and cookies. This event raised more than $500, which was used for the "Duck Crossing" signs located around the pond.

Children of Eden

Between the colorful costumes and beautiful music, Children of Eden was such an amazing show to be a part of at Assumption. There were so many great parts for Assumption students and we all love working with the children from the Worcester community. There's nothing like being able to sing and dance with your friends in front of a huge audience at the Hanover Theater!

Spring Concert

Jay Sean and Iyaz

Over 900 students attended Assumption College's first hip-hop concert which featured opener Iyaz and headliner Jay Sean. The crowd went crazy over original work and covers by both performers. It was a break through event for Assumption College and Campus Activities Board opening the door for feature hip hop acts to come.

Honors Convocation

The Honors Convocation recognizes those students who have achieved outstanding academic achievement, as determined by the faculty of the 15 academic departments. Students received more than 50 departmental awards, and scholarships. Amber Fournier, Kerianna Lessard, Chantal McLellan, Stephanie Bouley, Erin Fitzgerald, Matt Brennan, Brendan Shea, Robert Sansoucy, Nicholas DiAntonio, Marybeth Mulligan, and Erin Muschette were named as the new Augustine Scholars. Congratulations to these students for their hard work and incredible achievement!

Weirdest Roommate Habit You've

Witnessed...

Sleeping on the floor instead of the bed;
Their cooking habits; Shaving over the garbage can; passive aggressive cleaning;
Leaving Post-It notes around the room with their problems; Always needing a TV on;
Breaking plates against the wall; Constant belching (in a room of all girls...); Eating food off a dirty table without a plate; Sleep walking; Talking to herself; Leaving the shades down all day so the room is like a cave; Cleaning dishes in the shower; Never bringing room keys with them when they leave; Blow drying her eyelash curler;
Brushing each other's teeth; Stealing socks; Infrequent showering; Vacuuming in front her the bed every night before going to sleep; Staying up until 4 am; Always asking permission to do things in her own room; Hiding things all over the apartment; Farting contests; Skipping everywhere and randomly bursting into song; Talking in weird voices, like replacing all the Ls with Rs; *And thank you to everyone who sent us the dirty details of your roommates' underwear, nudity, and bathroom habits.
We appreciate the humor, but your friends might not.*

The Bucket List

Go to...Leits, Trifecta, Elm Park, the Worcester Art Museum, Mt. Wachusett, Flats Pizza, and all the other places we missed in the last four years

Have a water balloon fight
Visit the green house
Ride in a campus police car
Sky Dive
Make a homemade pizza
Ride the bull at Salty Dog
Take a picture in front of every building on campus
Walk home from Leitrim's
Flash mob during graduation
Play pick up basketball with the Worcester kids
Take a picture with the Greyhound
Swim in the Duck Pond
Get a job
Not get kicked out of Senior Week
Skip class for the beach
Get to know everyone in the class a little more
Make the best of the time we have left!

What will you miss most about Assumption?

Charlie's; Campus Ministry; Teammates;
Theology and Philosophy classes; The Ducks;
Loitering in IT; Living so close to friends;
Having free time; Building & Grounds to fix everything; Professors; Not living at home;

"Don't aim for success if you want it; just do what you love and believe in, and it will come naturally." - David Frost

Dear Linds,

You were born on St. Paddy's Day,
An Irish Colleen you'd be,
Your sweet little face brought such joy to me!
I called you "BEST FRIEND" since you were around three!
We played games, ate pizza and to the movies we'd go!
You played soccer, Irish Step Dancing, looked like "Cinderella" on Junior Prom, you know!
For me becoming "Running Buddies" and races together was just so much fun!
So Linds, on your College Graduation Day, I have to say,
How much happiness and love you've given me every day!
There's a special place in my heart where you'll always stay!
Be true to yourself, follow your dreams and listen to your HEART,
Congratulations Miss Linds, graduating from Assumption
College will be a "wonderful start!!"

Congratulations Nicholas Rucci

Living Life

Life is not a race but indeed a journey. Be honest. Work hard. Be choosy. Say "thank you" "I love you". and "great job" to someone each day. Take time for prayer. Let your handshake mean more than pen and paper. Love your life and what you've been given, it's not accidental--search for your purpose and do it as best you can. Dreaming does matter. It allows you to become that which you aspire to be. Laugh often. Appreciate the little things in life and enjoy them. Some of the best things really are free. Do not worry. Forgive, it frees the soul. Take time for yourself-plan for longevity. Recognize the special people you've been blessed to know. Live for today, enjoy the moment.

We love you

Mom, Dad and Erika

Congratulations Sue!

You make us so proud! We wish you every happiness the future could hold!

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Mary, Tim, Sarah and Andrew

Dear Danielle~
Ever since that first day of school we have always been proud of you and your accomplishments. Your journey at Assumption has certainly been the pinnacle of your education. You have never made us more proud. Never giving up and stepping outside your comfort zone. We love you~Mom and Dad

Dear TJ, Your hard work has paid off and we are so proud of you. You are very special to us and we love you. Congratulations on your Assumption Graduation. Love,
Dad, Mom and Lindsay

Jack,
Speed and silence of time allows you to glow from the shine of your unique brilliance, we bask in the glory of your successes and we live in your heart to bolster you in future struggles as you master life in the same endearing way you did with school. Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Pete
With joy and pride, we congratulate you on your graduation! You have put so much time and effort into reaching your goal and now... You've Done It! As you travel through life, look back now and then at this moment and be proud of your hard work and choices. We wish you life's very best! Love, Mom, Dad and Mike

Dear Jimmy,
Congratulations.
We are all so very proud of you and what you have accomplished. May success and happiness be with you always as you begin the next chapter of your life. We love you. Mom, Dad, Jackie & Nick

"...You'll get mixed up, of course, as you already know. You'll get mixed up with many strange birds as you go. So be sure when you step. Step with great care and great tact and remember that life's a great balancing act. Just never forget to be dexterous and deft. And never mix up your right foot with your left. And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.)"

-Dr. Seuss, Oh the Places You'll Go

Dear Michelle,
We are so very happy for you. You have accomplished so much over the past four years at Assumption College. You are a beautiful young woman and we are so very proud that you are our daughter. Congratulations on a job well done!!!! Love you always and forever, Mom and Dad xoxo

John,

You have proved to us that perseverance pays off. We are so proud of all that you have accomplished.

Congratulations!

Love,
Mom and Dad

In Memory of Steve Morris

Assumption remembers devoted Greyhound, Steve Morris

Kristen Geyer: Editor-in-Chief, Le Provocateur

For over 40 years Steve Morris dedicated his life to Assumption College as both a student and staff member.

"He was our biggest fan. It wasn't just basketball; it was every sport and every athlete," said men's basketball head coach Serge DeBari. "It was a rare enthusiasm that's not part of the job description. He was a fan and a supporter and just a great person. He served above and beyond.

On Monday, January 24, 2011 Morris died of heart failure at the age of 60 in his Worcester home after suffering from the flu for the past few weeks. He served as Assistant Director of Athletics of Media Relations. Director of Athletics Ted Paulauskis spoke to him just a few hours before his death. "He had been out of work for two weeks but never in my wildest dreams had I thought it was life threatening."

The Shrewsbury, Mass. native was a 1972 graduate of the College and upon graduation was hired by then Athletic Director Andrew Laska. "He started doing statistics for the college when he was a student, now here we are some 38 years later," said Paulauskis.

During his time as a student, Morris acquired the nickname "Merc" that has followed him throughout the years. "There are two definition of how he got it," said DeBari. "One was when he made a basketball move someone described it as being mercurial, or rather fast. Another one was back in the seventies, there was a football running back called Mercury Morris and that got attached to him too. No one can say how exactly he got his name, but both of those make sense."

Assumption was more to Morris than just a school. "He had a very small family, no siblings. His mother and father have since passed away," Paulauskis explained. "So in many ways he loved sports, he loved the work, he loved meeting people and without a family this kind of became his family."

It was his commitment that made Morris a beloved member of the community during his tenure at Assumption. Students past and present credit Morris' warm personality and compassion as their motivation to succeed.

"Merc was great to our team and me personally," said senior men's basketball captain Michael Baldarelli. "He was a laid back guy that would always joke around with you and would put a smile on your face."

In a statement to the College, President Cesareo wrote, "As Steve chronicled the intercollegiate events through the decades, he also developed an encyclopedic memory of students' accomplishments. He kept in touch with many of the former athletes because of his personal interest in their lives."

Steve Muscatello, alum of 2004, reflected, "He did a great deal to help me over the years, including much of the legwork to connect me to my first internship at a daily newspaper back when I was a junior."

Dave Nordman, '96, was Morris' work study throughout the time he attended Assumption. He credits Morris with getting him where he is today. "I was sitting on the couch in his office one day, probably in 1994, when the sports editor of the T&G at the time called him looking for a call-taker. All he said was something like, 'I've got the perfect guy for you, OK. OK. Yup. Yup. He'll be there on Monday.' He hung up the phone and when I asked him what that was all about, he said, 'You're working at the T&G. You start on Monday.'" Nordman is now Deputy Managing Editor for the Sports for the Telegram & Gazette. "But that's the thing about Merc, he always knew what was best for you, he was always looking out for you. And that's just me. I'm sure there were hundreds, even thousands of others he treated the same way," said Nordman.

"He's made great contacts through the years and for many people that's their main connection to the College," said DeBari. "He was an icon."

Though his death came as a surprise to the community those who knew Morris choose to honor his memory fondly, Per his wishes, there will be no formal funeral for Morris, instead Assumption commemorate him later this semester. "In recognition of Steve's like and dedication to Assumption, a committee will convene next week to plan a community celebration for the end of March or beginning of April," said Paulauskis.

"I'll remember him for the pride he had in our school, and for the significance he attached to being a Greyhound," Muscatelli said.

Paulauskis doubts there will ever be another Merc at Assumption. Recognizing the value of his long tenure he said, "He's a person whose employ will rarely be seen in the future years. People just don't work at the same job in their entire lifetime."

For many more years though, Morris' legacy will live on in the lives of the countless students he formed bonds with.

"Really, he should have been a teacher or professor. But if you ask the thousands of lives he touched, he was just as important as any teacher or professor they had," Nordman said. "And nobody worked harder or gave more to Assumption than Merc."

Here's to the crazy ones.

The misfits. The rebels. The troublemakers.

The round pegs in the square holes.

The ones who see things differently.

They're not fond of rules and they have no respect for the status quo.

You can praise them, disagree with them, quote them, disbelieve them, glorify or vilify them.

About the only thing you can't do is ignore them.

Because they change things.

They invent. They imagine. They heal.

They explore. They create. They inspire.

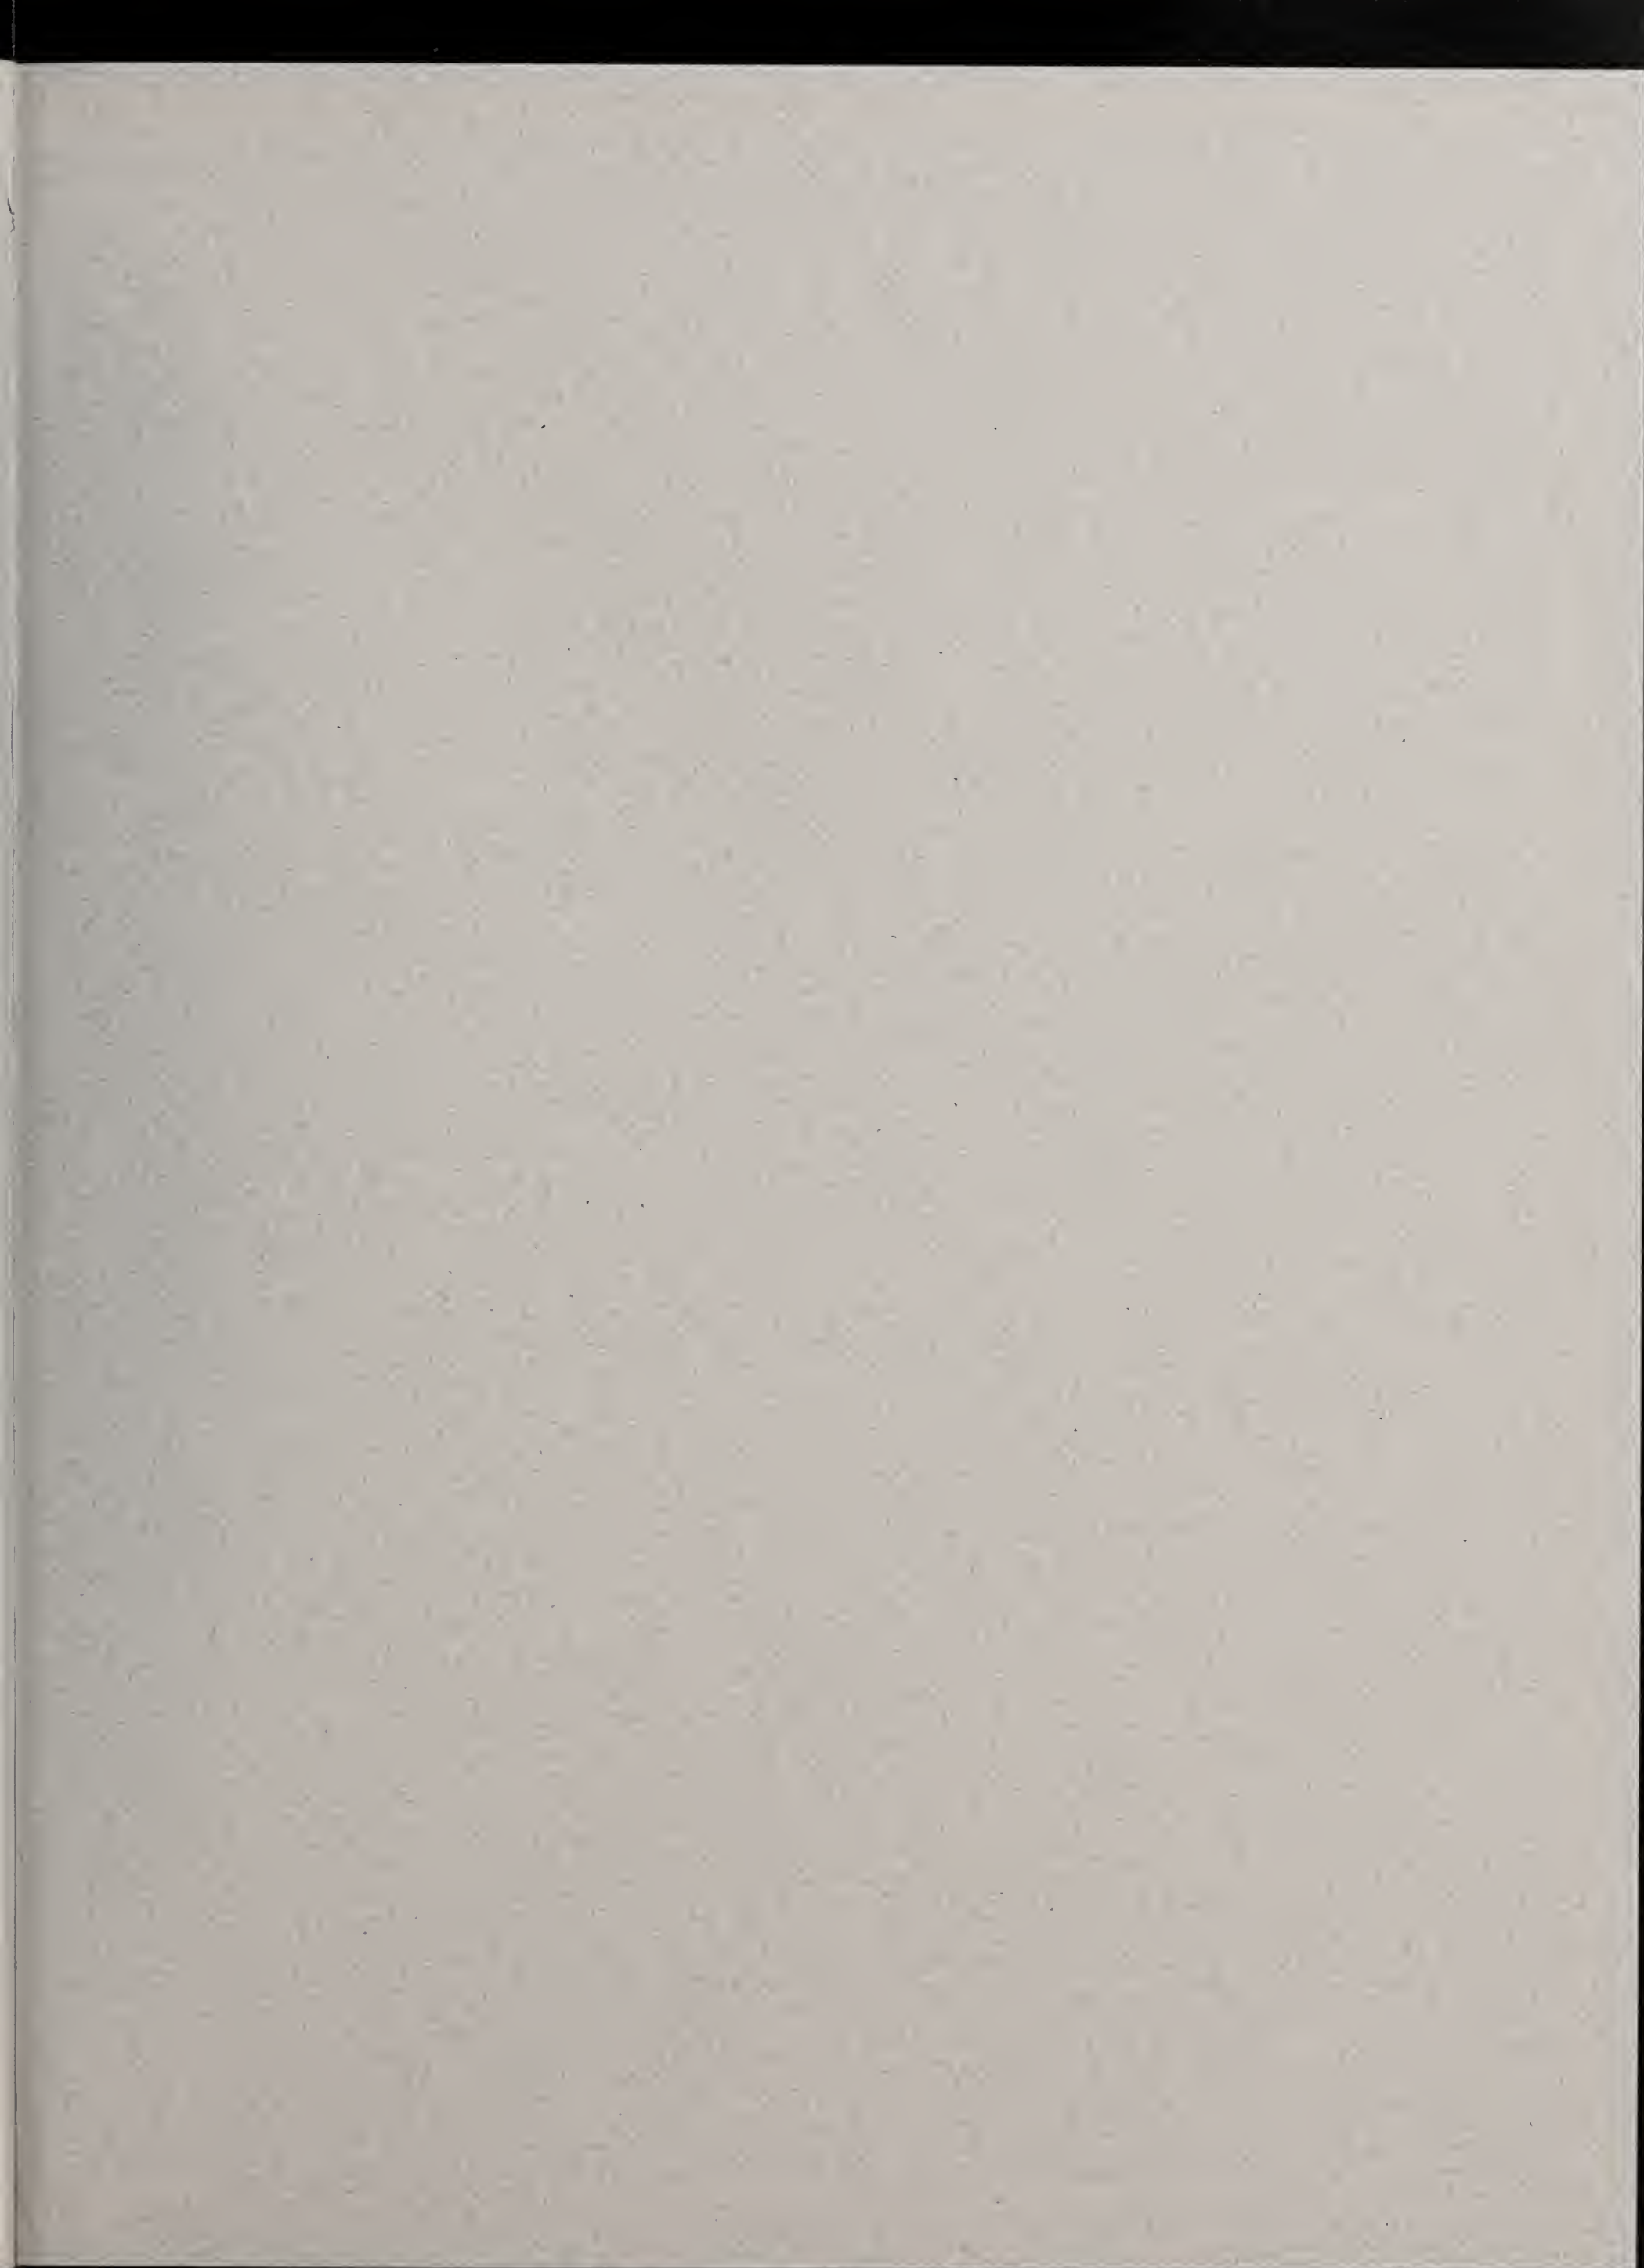

They push the human race forward.

While some people see them as the crazy ones, we see genius.

Because the people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world, are the ones who do.

Here's to you Class of 2011. Stay Crazy.
